

Explore BHI Webshops

Are you an interpreter educator interested in introducing your students to the complex challenges of behavioral health interpreting? Join with the CATIE Center's Behavioral Health Interpreting (BHI) staff to explore our 6 self-directed webshops between September 21-28, 2020. This online experience includes:

- A review of the CATIE Center BHI Webshop Series.
 - Specialized Interpreting: Mental Health
 - Specialized Interpreting: Addiction and Recovery
 - Intersectionality in Behavioral Health Interpreting
 - Intro to Deaf/Hearing Teams in BHI
 - Specialized Interpreting: Domestic Violence & Sexual Violence
 - BHI: Trauma-informed Approach
- An opportunity to explore the content and structure of the Webshop courses.
- Introduction to BHI content and materials for your IEP curriculum.
- The opportunity to experience these materials from the student's perspective.

Schedule:

- September 18 - Course opens for preview
- September 21 - Facilitation begins
- September 23 - Registration closes 5:00 pm EDT
- September 24 - Zoom Q & A session - 8:00 pm EDT (Session will be recorded if you cannot attend)
- September 28 - Facilitation ends
- October 1 - Course closes (Need to complete all required activities for CEUs)

The CATIE Center team hopes that you will find these materials engaging and an option for your students. The collection below will provide you a sense of the varied materials, content, and activities included in each Webshop of the series. Completing this asynchronous series, a sample activity from each webshop, and the synchronous session (via Zoom) will take approximately 3 hours of your time.
